About

From catering to sauces...

Established in 2014, we started our journey catering for a diverse range of customers across the UK.

Having fast gained a reputation as the go-to for mouth-watering and tantalising dishes inspired by flavours from the French Caribbean, Full Feast is more than your average catering company!

Jean-Philippe, or JP as we know him, chef, BBQ king and culinary artist, is at the helm of Full Feast. He has had one mission and that is to bring the taste of Guadeloupe to the world! With this mission, JP took a leap into developing our range of sauces which encapsulates the flavours, spice, and fruitiness of 'home'.

We're proud to offer you a taste of Gwada from our home to yours.

"For good times
you need good company and great food.
Life is too short
for anything less!"

JP - chef, BBQ king & culinary artist
